Student Handbook
Dear Culinary Student,

Thank you for choosing OSUIT for your Culinary Education. The Faculty & Staff at the school are confident that you will have an engaging and enjoyable experience during your time with us. I would like to take this moment to introduce myself as the Dean of the School of Arts, Sciences and Health. I am excited to be at OSUIT and a part of the wonderful Culinary Tradition established by this institution.

We are in the middle of an exciting time in our industry. Consumers are more educated about their food choices than ever before. The connection between where food comes from and how we utilize it is very important to our vision. As a school, we hope to provide education that will support our future chefs and food service managers with the skills to deliver that message to our customers.

You have just begun a great chapter in your life. You will be pushed by the faculty to work hard and achieve your goals. My charge to you is to do your very best every moment. Take the time to reflect on what you learn from your chefs and instructors every day. Culinary School will be over in a blink of an eye and soon you will be beginning your career. Do the very best you can every day! Give the most of yourself and the chefs will do the same in return.

Do not hesitate to contact myself with any questions you might have. I look forward to the wonderful things you will create in the upcoming months.

Sincerely,

Lisa Weis, Ph.D.

Dean, School of Arts, Sciences and Health

General Program Information

Enrollment Management

The Senior Administrative Assistant will advise you regarding your Degree Plan and will post any course drops or course additions as needed. Semester enrollment begins after mid-term and you may enroll yourself through the OKEY Banner System after advisement. Admissions is available to help should you require assistance as well.

Plan of Study

The Plan of Study is a document that outlines the courses you will need and recommends a sequence and course load to accomplish your course work. It is your responsibility to be aware of classes needed for graduation in your chosen culinary option(s). All program requirements must be complete and student must have a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in order to enroll in co requisites: Capstone and Internship. Please refer to the below Degree Plan and Recommended Sequence.

Deficiencies

Students cannot have more than one (1) deficiency at the time of enrollment into the Culinary Arts program. OSRHE requires that students with deficiencies begin remediation of basic academic skills during the first (1st) semester and continue until prepared for college-level coursework in the respective subject area. Unless otherwise specified, students must remove academic deficiencies within the first (1st) 24 semester credit hours attempted. Transfer students are required to remove curricular deficiencies within the first (1st) 12 semester credit hours attempted. With the exception of students enrolled in co-requisite developmental coursework, students may enroll in collegiate level courses within the deficiency’s discipline area only after the deficiency is satisfied.

Dropping/Adding Courses

Prior to classes starting or prior to a student attending one class session, enrollment may be cancelled. However, once you have attended one class but no longer plan to continue taking any classes during that semester, you must withdraw. Students who withdraw within the first 10 working days of a semester will receive a full refund for tuition and fees. A student may drop one class or more, but to be considered a full time student you must maintain 12 credit hours. A student must be full time to live on campus.

Sanitation & Safety

ServSafe Manager

The National Restaurant Association’s exam standards for the proctored Final Exam will be strictly followed. For more details, visit:

http://www.servsafe.com/home

The School of Culinary Arts requires current ServSafe Manager Certification at the time of degree application in order to meet the requirements for graduation. A passing score of 75% or higher on the ServSafe Manager Examination is required to receive the certification and a passing score for the course. ServSafe Manager Certification is an important part of your culinary education at OSUIT. Students who score below 75% will be required to retake the course. This is likely to result in a delay in their plan of study and potentially their graduation date. According to the NRAEF, no more than four attempts to pass the exam are allowed in one year, and a 60-day waiting period is required between the second and third attempt (the 60 days includes the retaking of the course) and again between the third and fourth attempt. After the fourth attempt, the examinee must wait another full year before he or she is eligible to retake the exam a fifth time. Students will be responsible for purchasing the $36 test access code for exam retakes directly from the NRAEF website. Because this course serves as a prerequisite for many culinary courses, you will be placed on a departmental probationary period pending your retake of the class. You must seek the Dean's approval to enroll in other culinary courses until you receive ServSafe Manager Certification.

Food & Tasting

During your time in the OSUIT Culinary Arts Program, we want you to learn as much as possible about food and service. We want you to experience the wonderful flavors that the world has to offer. This opportunity comes with responsibilities and costs must be controlled. Food is only tasted in the kitchen laboratories and are not meant to serve as your main meals unless specified by the faculty and to serve the larger group. Always use tasting spoons when cooking. There is to be no eating of outside food in the kitchen labs. You are expected to cooperate and work as a team and you must clean up after yourself.
Kitchen Procedures

No beverages are allowed in the kitchens except plastic bottled beverages. Clean as you go. Practice proper handwashing procedures. Use proper soap to clean and bleach to sanitize. Make a difference – know and practice proper sanitation. Stay to the right when walking through the kitchens and dining rooms. Practice “Cardinal Rules of Safety” and “Mise en Place.” Keep hot food hot and cold food cold. You are responsible for the sanitation of your work area and equipment. You will be trained and tested on equipment safety in each area.

Injuries

Please report any and all injuries to your instructor, even those you consider minor to include cuts, burns, falls, or other accidents. If you feel you need medical attention and/or treatment, or if your instructor feels medical treatment is necessary, we will contact campus police and make arrangements to transport you to the emergency room.
Financial Aid Information

Any funds remaining after your account has been paid in full will be disbursed to you by direct deposit or check. We strongly encourage direct deposit of your refund. Federal Work-Study

Most FWS positions are on campus. Your FWS work schedule will be developed around your class schedule so, as not to interfere with the time you need to be in the classroom. FWS student employees are allowed to work 15 hours per week. Contact the OSUIT Financial Aid Office for more information.

Culinary Student “Giving Boxes”

We realize that financial hardship can be a significant problem as a student. Our Faculty, Staff and Students have placed “Giving Boxes” in the student lounge areas for student use. There may come a time when essential items such as toiletries and supplies are needed. When you are in need, take what you need. If you have items to share, place them in the box. We can help each other out when times are tough.

General School Information

Lockers

There are lockers available for the students in the back of the building by the storeroom. All lockers must be labeled with the student’s name and the current semester on blue painters tape (available from the Senior Administrative Assistant). Please report the locker you are using to the Administrative Assistant. You will need to use your own lock and the school will not be responsible for any items in an unlocked locker or left after the semester has ended.

Student Club

The Future Chefs' Association (FCA) is the student leadership organization for the School of Culinary Arts. Membership in FCA provides many benefits including networking with other students and industry professionals, leadership opportunities, field trips and experience in catering and banquets.

Classroom Behavior

All students will have an equal opportunity to learn. Friendly, courteous, respectful behavior and positive attitudes are expected from all students at all times. Disrespect distracts from the educational process.

Attendance

Students are expected to be in class every day and on time. There is no tolerance for tardiness and there are no excused absences. You will be allowed to make up work missed when participating in official OSUIT school activities, jury duty or special circumstances. Faculty on our campus participates in the “Early Alert Warning System” to communicate attendance problems, which becomes part of your permanent record. You must not miss more than 20% of your time in class and may be administratively dropped from the course if you do so. Instructors have the right to remove unruly students from class. We require the student to have counseling before returning to class.

Time in Building

Students may not start class work or be in the labs unless an instructor is present. If you need to be in the lab outside of regular class time, you must have permission from your instructor. Students must be in full uniform when in kitchen lab spaces at all times.
Technology

With permission from the instructor, a recording device may be used in the classroom to record lectures. Cell phones must be turned off during class time and are not allowed in the kitchens unless at a time approved by your instructor for purposes of photographing your work in a portfolio.

Field Trips

Field trips are arranged for learning experiences. When you are on an OSUIT sponsored field trip, you’re representing this department. For that reason, you are expected to adhere to OSUIT Student Rights and Responsibilities and dress appropriately. Appropriate attire for all field trips is the chef’s uniform. Occasionally, appropriate dress may be business attire, business casual or even formal wear. Shorts, faded, worn or torn jeans, tank tops and casual wear are never appropriate attire for a field trip.

Additionally, some field trips will require that you remove jewelry and watches and wear closed-toed shoes. Complete co-operation with the host company and its representatives is necessary. You must purchase liability insurance for field trips. The cost is 40 cents per day.

Portfolio & Internship

All program requirements must be complete and student must have a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in order to enroll in co-requisites: Capstone and Internship.

All students will complete an industry internship and prepare a portfolio. Work on your portfolio will begin in the Culinary Theory course and culminate in the Capstone course. Students should obtain a location for internship the semester before graduation. Job opportunities are emailed to students. Approved sites can be arranged; however, you are encouraged to set goals and seek internships suitable to your needs and that will lead to full time employment.
Answers to Questions

Instructor - If you have questions regarding your class, talk to your instructor. Faculty members include their office hours and contact information in the class syllabus. If you cannot locate this information, set a time to meet with your instructor by speaking with him/her prior to or immediately following your class session or check with the departmental office on when the instructor may be available.

Faculty Mentor - All students will benefit by conferring with their assigned Faculty Mentor on a regular basis. If you do not know who your faculty mentor is or would like to learn more, talk to the Senior Administrative Assistant during enrollment. Expect to meet with your mentor at least once per term to discuss your progress.

Instructor – Each of your instructors is committed to your success. Throughout your program, there will come a time when some topics are more difficult than others. It is very important that during these times you ask questions and visit your instructor during office hours. There may also be an opportunity for tutoring, but you must arrange this with your instructor.

Peer – Although culinary school can be challenging, remember that there are many students that have come before you that have completed and achieved great things. There are many 2nd year students that can be a valuable resource for you. Some of these students will be available to help you as a peer tutor. For more information, ask your faculty mentor for information.

Culinary Studio – The school has a dedicated lab space for you to practice and receive tutoring on both skills and culinary course content. The Culinary Studio is available for you to use outside of class if your instructor advises you to practice skills for a prescribed amount of time. Look for the schedule outside the door for open hours and for posted lab hours for both Instructor and Peer tutors.

Customer Service and Guest Relations:

This is a customer service industry. What differentiates food service businesses is their commitment to providing excellent customer service. Quality food served at the correct temperature is customer service. Going above and beyond what is expected is customer service. Treat guests the way you would want to be treated. Be prompt, clean and attentive to details. Do whatever it takes to make the customer happy. Don’t say "NO" - offer alternatives instead. Greet each guest and visitor with "Hello" and a smile. Treat all Culinary Arts employees and students with respect and common courtesy.
